

Financial Aid and Grants
Offered through
Presbytery of New Hope and the Committee on Preparation for Ministry

Jesse Lee Thomas Fund

Description of fund: In 1997, The Presbytery of New Hope received a bequest from Mr. Jesse Lee Thomas, a Durham, NC resident and member of Triangle Presbyterian Church, to establish as an educational trust for the benefit and use of candidates for the ministry in the Presbyterian Church. Mr. Thomas' keen interest in preparing individuals for the ministry and his dedication to the church will continue to be lived out in the future through the many lives that will be impacted by his generous gift. The amount of the trust varies from year to year based upon earnings on the principal. The Presbytery of New Hope Finance and Property Committee makes the annual distribution available known to the CPM.

What to expect: All grants for education, testing (up to ½ of the cost of career counseling) cost of ordination exams, travel, summer CPE programs (up to $1,000), and matching grant seminary internships for seminarians (up to $3,000) will be evaluated by the CPM and awarded based on funds available and demonstrated need.

Who is eligible: Inquirers, candidates, and enrollees of the Presbytery of New Hope under the care of the Presbytery of New Hope Committee on Preparation for Ministry (CPM).

Timeline: The CPM receives applications and makes decisions on a rolling basis at regular meetings.

Committee on Preparation for Ministry Budget

Description of fund: This is an annual budget item provided by the Presbytery of New Hope for candidate and inquirer expenses associated with psychological evaluations, travel, gifts, etc. The amount varies yearly based upon the budget raised by the presbytery.

What to expect: Grants for seminarians will be evaluated by the CPM and awarded based on funds available and demonstrated need.

Who is eligible: Inquirers, candidates, and enrollees of the Presbytery of New Hope under the care of the Presbytery of New Hope Committee on Preparation for Ministry (CPM).
